Up in the Barn.

Poet's Corner.

At length Old Farmer Joe sits down
A patch across each of his knees,
He crowds his hat back on his crow
Then clasps his hands—so hard and
And like a farmer takes his ease.

How fast the years do go !

It seems, in fact, but yesterday,

That in this very barn, we three,—
David, Exchiel, and me—

Pitched in the summer loads of hay

I might have been—I can't tell what
Who knows about it till he tries ?
I might have sattled in some spot,
Where money is more easy got;
Perhaps beneath Pacific's skies.

I might have preached like Parson Jones.
Or got a living at the law;
I might have gone to Congress, sure;
I might have kept a water care;
I might have gone and been—Oh, pahav

I've ploughed and mowed this dear old farm Till not a rod but what I know; I've kept the old folks sings and warm— And lived without a twinge of harm— I don't care how the storm might blow. And on this same old farm I'll stay,
And raise my cattle and my corn;
Here shall these hairs turn wholly gray
These feet shall nover learn to stray;
But I will die where I was born."
